Other members of the Committee are: Mr. H.T. Wu, Registrar, Mrs. Ethel Fehl, Deputy Registrar, Mr. T.C. Cheng or his representative of United College, Mr. Tse Chiu Kit, Chung Chi College, and Mr. Donald C. McCabe, New Asia College.

NEW UNIVERSITY STAFF

Mr. Cheung Shiu Tong, Assistant Registrar (Examinations)

Born in 1910, Mr. Cheung was educated at St. Paul's Boys' College and then at the University of Hong Kong, where he received the B.A. degree (Education) in 1933. Upon graduation he was appointed University Trained Master by Government and taught at various Government schools. During the War years he served as a teacher of English in Pui Ying Middle School and True Light Middle School in China and later became Head of the English Section of these Colleges. After the War he returned to the Education Department in Hong Kong.

In 1948 he was posted to the Education Department Headquarters as Stores Officer, and in 1950 he was appointed Secretary of the Hong Kong School Certificate Examination Syndicate. This post he held for three years. Later, he served in the Education Department as Secretary of the Department and then as Technical Secretary. At the same time he was responsible for the administration of overseas examinations in Hong Kong and acted as liaison officer of the Education Department with the examining bodies in the United Kingdom.

In 1958 Mr. Cheung was sent to England to study the procedures and modern techniques in the administration of the G.C.E. Examinations and the Secondary School Selection Examination. He worked at various examining bodies in England, including the School Examinations Department of London University and the Cambridge Local Examination Syndicate.

Shortly after his return to Hong Kong he was made Head of the Examination Section of the Education Department and given the responsibility to organize the Secondary School Entrance Examination in Hong Kong, which is a competitive examination for selection of pupils for places in Government and Government aided schools.

For four years he was Chairman of both Boards of Control for the English School Certificate Examination and the Chinese School Certificate Examination and also Chairman of the Secondary School Entrance Examination Committee. Mr. Cheung was promoted to the grade of Senior Education Officer in 1962, and at the same time he was appointed Senior Inspector of Schools.

In 1959 when the Grant Colleges (now constituent Colleges of our University) first founded their Joint Entry Examination Syndicate, Mr. Cheung was nominated by the Director of Education as one of its members. In the following year he was elected by the Syndicate as its Chairman. This post he continued to hold till the Syndicate was dissolved in October 1963 with the inauguration of this University. During this period he was concurrently the Examination Secretary to Joint Diploma Examination in charge of all confidential matters of that examination.

Translation of Professors Pffiffer and Sherwood's "Administrative Organization" (1964 in New Asia College)

Mr. Chen Ching-ho, New Asia College, History.

Mr. Chen was born in Taichung (Taiwan) in 1917. After graduated from the Keio University (Tokyo) in September 1942, he was sent to French Indochina in 1943 as an exchange scholar between Japan and France and engaged in the studies of history and language of Vietnam at the "Ecole Francaise d'Extreme-Orient" in Hanoi.

After the War, Mr. Chen returned to Taiwan, and from December 1946 onwards, he began teaching at the National Taiwan University, where he was an Associate Professor in August 1950, then Full time Professor in August 1956. Meanwhile, granted a scholarship by the China Foundation (New York), Mr. Chen studied modern history of the Far Eastern countries mostly at the "Institut des Hautes Etudes Chinoises" (Universite de Paris) from September 1954 to October 1955.

From August 1958, invited by the government of Vietnam, he taught History of Southeast Asian Countries at the University of Hue, University of Saigon and University of Dalat. Besides teaching, Mr. Chen was nominated Chairman of the Committee for the translation and research of Vietnamese Historical sources (University of Hue), engaging in the work of cataloguing and publishing the Imperial Archives of the Nguyen dynasty.

In 1962, Mr. Chen became the head of the Southeast Asia Studies Section of New Asia Research Institute; Senior Lecturer on the History of Southeast Asia by the University in June 1964.

In addition to teaching, Mr. Chen has published many articles on the history of overseas Chinese in Southeast Asian areas, including: The Overseas Chinese in the Philippines during the XVIth century; Brief study on the Family Register of the Trans, Minh-huong-xa (Thua-thien, Central Vietnam), Catalogue of Imperial Archives of the Nguyen, Vol. I, II; An-nam-chi-luoc, revised and annotated; etc.

Dr. Ma Lin, United College, Chemistry.

Dr. Ma Lin attended King's College, Hong Kong; later he went to China and studied at the Middle School attached to the West China Union University, subsequently entering the department of chemistry at that University and received his B.Sc. degree. During his last years at West China Union he was awarded departmental scholarships.

Upon graduation Dr. Ma joined his alma mater as a Demonstrator in Chemistry. Two years later he went to England to pursue post-graduate studies at the University of Leeds, where he was conferred the Ph.D. degree in Protein Chemistry in 1955. The next year he became a Fellow of the Sino-British Fellowship Trust in London and was engaged in post-doctorate training, first at University College Hospital, London, and later at St. James' Hospital, Leeds.

In 1957 Dr. Ma returned to Hong Kong and joined the staff of the University of Hong Kong. In 1959 he was promoted from Assistant Lectureship to a Lectureship in Chemical Pathology. From this time onwards, Dr. Ma served as an Examiner in Chemistry for the Hong Kong University Matriculation Examination. His first association with the Chinese University of Hong Kong was when he became an External Examiner in Chemistry of the Post-Secondary Colleges Joint Diploma Examination in 1960, the forerunner of the Chinese University Degree/Diploma Examination.

Dr. Ma is a member of several learned societies in London.
